Cristiano Ronaldo Joins Inter Miami CF for His Final MLS Season

Miami, FL – October 6th

In a groundbreaking announcement that will put the emotions of fans through the roof, Inter Miami CF has officially signed global futbol legend Cristiano Ronaldo for what is expected to be the final season of his remarkable career in Major League Soccer (MLS) in 2026.

The signing will mark one of the greatest moments in MLS history, uniting Ronaldo with fellow futbol legend Lionel Messi, who will continue his career with Inter Miami. This action exemplifies Miami's commitment to naming itself a global powerhouse for world-class futbol.

Ronaldo, a five-time Ballon d'Or winner and one of the most established athletes in the sport's history, is expected to make his debut in March 2026 at Chase Stadium in Miami, Florida. His arrival brings ultimate excitement to fans across America, offering one final chance to witness his excellence on the field before retirement.

With tickets expected to sell out rapidly, Inter Miami is preparing for a record-breaking season that will be evidently remembered in MLS and global football history.
